AIACV brings long-standing AIASF California Supplemental Exam Review Seminar to the Central Valley! This seminar is instructed by Archibald Woo, AIA, writer of the CSE Study Guide and Mock Exams and teacher of CSE prep seminars since 2003.

This two-part CSE seminar provides a detailed overview of all knowledge areas of the California Supplemental Exam. The first session covers site issues, programming and different federal, state and local codes and regulations that affect building development in the state of California. The second session includes discussions on general architectural practice and the Architect's roles and responsibilities during design and construction as outlined in different AIA contract documents.

**Minimum 12 attendees required, must sign up for both sessions*

COST AIA Members: $170 ($85 per session)
Non - Members: $270 ($135 per session)

About the Instructor:

Archibald Woo, AIA is a licensed architect and has been practicing in the San Francisco Bay Area since 1990. In 2002, AIA San Francisco decided to hold seminars for the CSE, and Archibald was brought in to help set up and teach the seminars. Archibald gave his first seminars in mid-2003, and ever since then has been giving them three or more times every year. He has also been active in the teaching and mentoring of architectural students and younger professionals.

For reasonable accommodations or alternate formats, please contact AIA Central Valley at least 72 hours prior to the event: info@aiacv.org or 916-444-3658.
