COPENHAGEN TRIP

aiacv style!

April 10 - 15, 2019

see back side for details or visit <http://aiacv.org/copenhagen-trip-aiacv-style/>

Copenhagen has developed a unique response to key factors affecting many European cities.

To mimic life in this engaging city, we will explore the city by boat, bike, walking tours and even a morning run. Lectures, cocktail hours and a gala dinner in locations throughout the city will inform your new perspective on Copenhagen.

-----> TRIP DETAILS

AIACV is excited to invite you to participate in an amazing trip to Copenhagen this coming spring to attend the AIA Europe Spring Conference!

Come explore Livability in Copenhagen – “How it works, Why it works, Where it works, When it works, and ...sometimes doesn’t.” The trip includes one-of-a-kind architectural discussions and tours by boat, bike and feet. Open to AIA members, as well as spouses and friends.

Trip Highlights include:

- Sessions on sustainability, live/work balance, designing with acoustics, lighting and water, and the city’s design culture
- Boat tour of Copenhagen’s canals and riverfront architecture
- Visit to Ørestad, a new town concept of a city island community of the renovation.
- Exclusive opportunities to connect with our European AIA colleagues
