AIA
Central Valley

EMPOWERING
CENTRAL VALLEY

Thursday, June 20th, 2019, 8:00 am - 3:00 pm
Sacramento Regional Builders Exchange

What are your greatest challenges related to your career? Join the Chapter for a day of conversation about growth and leadership with industry leaders and interactive activities.

MEET THE SPEAKERS

EMILY GRANDSTAFF-RICE, FAIA
Senior Associate, Arrowstreet

Emily leads the national diversity and inclusion conversation as chair of the Equity in Architecture Commission. As a frequent speaker and writer on the future of architectural practice, Emily is fascinated by how technology, the social economy, and environmental urgency are addressed in architectural practice.

JULIA MANDELL, AIA
Architect, Wilson Associates

Julia's work includes the design of spaces for living, working, eating and making, with a focus on adaptive reuse. Julia also currently serves as the Co-Chair of Equity by Design, working to increase access to the field of architecture and promote equitable outcomes throughout the architectural process.

KELLEY COWAN
Project Executive, XL Construction

Kelley is the current President of the Sacramento Regional Builders' Exchange, a founding board member of the ACE (Create) Mentoring Program, and was one of Sacramento Business Journal's "40 Under 40."

JANA ITZEN, AIA
President/CEO, ITZEN Architects

Jana is cofounder of ITZEN Architects, Inc. located in Santa Ana, CA. In 2017 she served as AIA California President, and now serves as regional representative to the AIA National Strategic Council.

AFTERNOON PANELISTS

Ida Clair, AIA, Acting State Architect, DSA
Kimberly Garza, PLA, Principal, ATLAS LAB

Laura Knauss, AIA, Principal, Lionakis
Beth Young, AIA, Principal, HGA

COST
AIA Members: $75.00
Non Members: $100.00
Students: $25.00 (limited availability)

Includes: breakfast, lunch, presentations, activities, and take–away gift.

RSVP
empowercv2019.bpt.me

For reasonable accommodations and or alternate formats, please contact AIA Central Valley at least 48 hours in advance.