

About AIA

Based in Washington, D.C., the American Institute of Architects (AIA) is the leading professional membership association for licensed architects, emerging professionals, and allied partners since 1857.

Today, with nearly 300 state and local chapters, the AIA serves as the voice of the architecture profession and the resource for our members in service to society.

AIA CENTRAL VALLEY is a local chapter of The American Institute of Architects, serving 17 northern California counties. The Chapter has been in existence since 1942 and has grown from a group of 5 charter members to its current membership of over 550+, serving architects, associates, students and allied professionals.

OUR MISSION

The American Institute of Architects, Central Valley Chapter (AIACV) serves as the voice of the profession in our 17- county region of central California, and is dedicated to professional development, advocacy, and sharing the value and contributions of AIA architects.

You don't have to be an architect to join
